

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 63 Years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their luncheon, Monday, January 11th., at the Pagoda Hotel, in the Int'l Ballroom located on the 1st. floor, with lunch starting at 11:30 AM and a program at 12 noon:

Solomon Batoon - Athletic Director - Saint Francis School - Saint Francis is part of the ILH and Solomon is responsible for 20 different sports programs including Boys and Girls, 7th and 8th grade, Varsity, JV and Freshman. The boys and girls basketball teams just competed in the Boys D-1 Intermediate Playoffs and the Girls Varsity Basketball Team just played Sacred Hearts Academy last week. Upcoming is Girls Varsity Soccer on Tuesday, January 12th against Mid Pacific Institute. Solomon will give us an update on the games and talk about the teams and "stars" who will continue on after high school to play Collegiate Sports. He'll entertain questions from attendees at the Honolulu Quarterback Club Monday Luncheon.

Nick Folker -Strength and Conditioning Coach - Women's Swim Swim Team including Weight and Dryland Programs - University of California (Cal) - Berkeley- Coach Nick is no stranger to Hawaii, since he received his business degree at the University of Hawaii. While at UH, Coach Nick developed his unique strength and conditioning experience after swimming under and working with "Rainbows" Head Coach Sam Freas. He is attending an annual swimming tournament at UH working under Cal's Head Coach Terri McKeever. Nick is from Pietermaritzburg, South Africa and competed for South Africa's National Team in several world-class events, such as the 2000 Olympic Games, the 1999 World University Games, the 2001 World Championships and the 2001 Goodwill on the World All-Star Team. He will take questions from the floor on Monday at the HQC Luncheon.