Joe Lileikis – Coach – Masters Swimming Program – Oahu Club – Hawaii Kai – Joe has been a swimmer all his life. He was awarded a swimming scholarship to the University of Hawai'i where he was a WAC Conference finalist in all individual events during his 4 years at the University and a national finalist and NCAA All-American. Currently, he is the Swimming Coach for the Masters Program at the Oahu Club in Hawaii Kai. During his 28 years coaching Masters Swimming programs, he developed clinics and created the Performance Swim Training Program at the Oahu Club. Joe personalizes his coaching for all levels of swimmers and uses video to analyze and train his swimmers. He is excited to coach all levels of swimmers and is motivated by the positive energy created from swimming. Joe will answer questions from luncheon attendees on Monday at the Honolulu Quarterback Club.

Todd Harold Pohaku Bradley - Founder – C4 Waterman Program – Todd is the chief visionary who spearheaded the C4 Waterman Program. Along with his partners, as co-founder, his passion and energy are the driving forces in the development of the C4 Waterman. Balancing family life with a highly successful career in brand-building, sales and marketing, and innovative design, he somehow still manages to continue to reach elite levels in a slew of sports, particularly canoe paddling, SUP and surfing. The Honolulu-based C4 Waterman was created by 3 founders, Todd, Brian Keaulana and Archie Kaepa due to the meteoric rise of SUP as both a sport and enormous treasure chest of the global paddle sports industry. As undisputed pioneers in every segment of the new sport and business, the C4 Waterman as a brand is a hotbed of innovation. Todd will talk about the company and the C4 Waterman Program.
