The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 68 years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their luncheon, Monday, April 14th., at the Maple Garden Restaurant:

Jack Sullivan - Alexander Joy Cartwright Celebration - Baseball

Jack Sullivan, a past president (head coach) of the Honolulu Quarterback Club will discuss the upcoming 194th Birthday celebration of Cartwright, the inventor of modern day baseball rules in Hoboken NJ in 1846 when he was 26 years old. He arrived in Hawai’i three years later. Cartwright is buried at Oahu Cemetery. Each year baseball buffs meet on his birthday April 17 at his grave site to talk baseball in his honor. Participants usually bring their baseball gloves and toss a baseball around during the ceremony. Little known facts about his community service in Hawai’i was that Cartwright was an adviser to two kings and a queen, appointed fire chief of Honolulu by King Kamehameha III, helped form the Honolulu Library system, was a Board member of Queens Hospital and was associated with Bishop Bank. He passed away in 1892 at age 72. Come to the Honolulu Quarterback Club Luncheon Monday. Jack will surely entertain you during the luncheon.

The Maple Garden Restaurant is located at 909 Isenberg (near the corner of King and Isenberg directly across from the Old Stadium Park) and there is free parking next to the Restaurant or street parking is available. The entrance to the meeting room is located at the rear of the Maple Garden building through the parking lot. Lunch is at 11:30 am and the program begins at 12 noon.
