PRESS RELEASE

For Release: Sunday, April 14, 2013

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 67 years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speaker for their luncheon, Monday, April 15th., at the MGR:

+ Sjarif Goldstein - Assistant Sports Editor - Honolulu Star-Advertiser

Sjarif Goldstein - Assistant Sports Editor - Entertainment Writer/Reviewer - Honolulu Star-Advertiser - Sjarif has been with the newspaper for 17 years, 13 of those in sports and has held his current position for the last 12 years. He is a graduate of Pearl City High School where he played tennis and during that period his team won the OIA Championship. His collegiate years were spent at the University of Hawai'i in journalism. Sjarif was editor-in-chief of the school's newspapers at both his high school and college. During his school years he played major sports recreationally and still plays basketball once a week. When the transitional period between the Honolulu Advertiser and Star-Bulletin occurred, Sjarif worked for the Contra Costa Times and came back to Hawai'i to work for the Star-Advertiser. Besides his sports duties at the newspaper, he also is a writer for the Today section. In his spare time, Sjarif is involved in his children's parent-teacher association and is currently President. Sjarif will talk about the sports section and how his team puts together the daily and weekend editions.

The Maple Garden Restaurant is located at 909 Isenberg (near the corner of King and Isenberg directly across from the Old Stadium Park) and there is free parking next to the Restaurant or street parking is available.
