PRESS RELEASE

For Release: Sunday, April 15, 2018

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 71 years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speaker for their luncheon, Monday, April 16th at the Maple Garden Restaurant, 909 Isenberg St., Honolulu, HI 96826:

+ Brian "Disco" Bennett - Director, Outreach and Government Affairs, U.S. Pacific Fleet - Celebration Birthday of the Father of Modern Baseball, Alexander Joy Cartwright Jr.

Brian "Disco" Bennett - Director, Outreach and Government Affairs, U.S. Pacific Fleet - Brian is heading up the committee for the installation of a new monument for Alexander Joy Cartwright, Jr., the Father of Modern Baseball. Brian directs Pacific Fleet engagements and interactions with U.S. and international government officials and industry partners.

On Tuesday, April 17th, The Friends of Alexander Joy Cartwright, Jr. will again have an informal gathering to pay a tribute to the man who created modern baseball. Every year loyal baseball fans and players, dating back to the days of Babe Ruth, gather at the Oahu Cemetery to sing happy birthday, talk story and throw a baseball around. It's the 198th birthday of Cartwright. This year there are plans to install a new monument of Cartwright at the gravesite. Brian will give the Honolulu Quarterback Club all the details.

The Maple Garden Restaurant is located at 909 Isenberg (near the corner of King and Isenberg directly across from the Old Stadium Park) and there is free parking next to the Restaurant or street parking is available. The entrance to the meeting room is located at the rear of the Maple Garden building through the parking lot. Lunch is at 11:30 am and the program begins at 12 noon. The luncheon cost is $16.00 per person for members and guests that include tax and gratuities. The food is fabulous!

THE GENERAL PUBLIC IS INVITED

Come to our meeting & celebrate this speaker!

There is parking next to the Maple Garden Restaurant and plenty of street parking.
