Mufi Hannemann - Former Honolulu Mayor - Founder of Team Aloha -

Former Honolulu Mayor and Founder of Team Aloha will be here at the HQC luncheon to talk about this year's all-star collection of the state's most outstanding Wahine high herto compete in a spring hoops classic on the mainland and for over 20 years he sponsored the only female basketball competition for all ages in the state - featuring the stars of yesterday, today and tomorrow. This year Team Aloha, coached by former UH Rainbow Wahine star, Fran Villarmi-Kahawai, captured the 17 and under division Championship at the Arizona Spring Elite Classic with a perfect 6-0 record, marking the 2nd time Team Aloha has won such a competition. Founder Mufi is a past winner of the Honolulu Quarterback's Neal Shaw Blaisdell Award and also won the Club's Teen Athlete of the Year as a basketball and football player at Iolani School. He will talk about the players and the competition.

Scott Wong - Head Coach - Women's Sand Volleyball - University of Hawai'i -

Coach Scott is entering his 3rd year as Head Coach of the University of Hawai'i Sand Volleyball Team. Coach Scott himself is a world-class beach volleyball player and is the associate coach for the Rainbow Wahine women's indoor team for the past 4 years. This season, the sand volleyball team ended up with 4 All-Americans, a 3rd place team award and a 2nd place finish in pairs. At the AVCA Collegiate Sand Volleyball National Championships, the team ended up in 3rd place only to be defeated by Pepperdine and UCLA. Scott will talk about his players, the team and the season.

Victor Wales - Head Coach - Swimming & Diving - University of Hawaii -

Coach Victor will be receiving the February 2014 Male Sportsperson of the Month Award. He was selected as Men's Swimming Coach of the Year at the MPSF Swimming and Diving Championships held on the mainland. He will talk about the season and the team.
