Rick Tune - Head Volleyball Coach - Punahou - Coach Rick named ILH Volleyball Coach of the Year was just named High School Volleyball Coach of the Year for the State of Hawai'i. The "Buffanblu" won the ILH league title and captured an undefeated season, 23-0 with their second straight state title and was ranked No. 1 in the state and ranked No.1 in the Nation, winning the Best of the West invitational and beating the previous #1, #2, #5, & #7. Two players on the "Buffanblu" were named Co-Players of the Year, Taylor Crabb and Joshua Taylor. Coach Rick graduated from Punahou and played Volleyball at UH during the time UH made the final four in two consecutive years. After completing his undergraduate degree at UH, he continued playing volleyball at Pepperdine University and finished his graduate degree with a Masters in Education. Upon his return to Hawai'i, Coach Rick began teaching at St. Louis, and coaching the JV program. In 2000, he took over the varsity program and coached St Louis to the most successful season in the history of the school, 20-3, only losing to Punahou. In 2001, Coach Rick moved to Punahou, teaching and coaching JV volleyball, where the "Buffanblu" went 24-1 over two seasons winning two JV championships. In 2003, he moved to the varsity as an assistant under Peter Balding and over four years, the team went 117-3 winning three state titles. Coach Rick took over the program in 2008 as Head Coach and the team achieved a record of 88-2 winning back to back state titles in 2009 and 2010. Coach Rick has been selected as ILH Coach of the Year every year since 2008 and has been named State Coach of the Year in 2009 and 2010 plus named National Coach of the Year by ESPN Rise in 2009. Coach Rick will describe the season and talk about his All-State Players on Monday at the HQC.

Cal Lee - Assistant Head Coach - University of Hawai'i Football Warriors - Coach Cal returns to the Honolulu Quarterback Club as the coach who will be working with the defensive ends this upcoming season. Head Coach "Mac" has reassigned the coaching assignments so that he can allow his coaches to coach. Coach "Mac" has said, if Coach Cal had been allowed to pick the defenses in 2008, it would have given myself (McMackin) more time to work on overall game management and the record of 13-14 may have been better. Coach Cal will talk about all the coaching changes that have been announced and the resignation of his brother Ron Lee as a member of the coaching staff.

Steve Colflesh - Athletic Director - Certified Master Athletic Administrator- Seabury Hall Academy- Makawao Hawaii - Athletic Director Steve has been selected as the recipient of the 2009 Paul Durham Athletic Director Award by the Honolulu Quarterback Club. This award, named in honor of long-time Quarterback member and University of Hawaii Athletics Director Paul Durham, is given annually to a Hawai'i athletic director who has exemplified strong leadership, commitment to gender equity, and significant progress in building sports programs and sports champions in the process. This year, Seabury Hall won the Division II State Volleyball Championship beating Pahoehoe. This was the first boy's volleyball state championship for a Maui MIL School. Seabury Hall had all seven starters return from last year's team and this year finished a championship season of 12-0. During the past 12 years Steve has directed a workshop for Independent School Athletic Administrators from around the world. He arrived from the mainland after coaching public high school sports there in 1984 and was named head coach at Seabury for both boy's and girl's volleyball. In the following 10 years, Steve's teams have qualified for State Tournaments 7 out of 10 years and he was named Coach of the Year on 6 different occasions. In 2002-2006, as Girl's Head Coach, the team won 48 consecutive volleyball MIL matches. Steve has coached basketball, track and field and volleyball for over 27 years. He is the only Certified Master Athletic Administrator in the State of Hawai'i. He also serves on the annual High School Hall of Honor committee which each year selects 12 outstanding high school athletes. Danna-Lynn Hooper-Juaris, from Molokai an All-State MIL and All-State in 3 sports, Basketball, Softball and Volleyball, is one of the 12 recipients for this honor. She will be making an appearance at Honolulu Quarterback Luncheon on Monday.

THE GENERAL PUBLIC IS INVITED!
