PRESS RELEASE

For Release: Sunday, July 12, 2015

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 69 years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their luncheon, Monday, July 13, 2015 at the Maple Garden Restaurant, 909 Isenberg St., Honolulu, HI 96826:

+ Bruce Ridgely Black - Polynesian Voyaging Society - President Aloha Spirit Hawaii, Canoe Racing Champion

Bruce Ridgely Black - Polynesian Voyaging Society - Teacher at Mid Pacific Institute and Epiphany School -

Bruce is your typical "Waterman". With a background in water polo during his collegiate years at UCLA, an Olympic Sports Festival water polo champion for 3 years, coaching canoeing at the Outrigger Canoe Club, canoe racing, being a champion of the Molokai World Championship Canoe Race for 2 years, and a member of the Polynesian Voyaging Society. Bruce just returned from sailing on the Hokule'a and will share his adventure with luncheon attendees.

Dr. Rachel Coel - Medical Director - Queen's Center for Sports Medicine - Queens Hospital - Doctor Rachel is trained to provide treatment and prevention plans for those athletes who participate in sports and related physical activities. She is trained to treat indications such as muscle tears and strains, concussions, tendon and ligament damage, shin splints, sports hernias, fractures, and a variety of others. Treatments include rehabilitation services, therapies and a variety of surgical operations. She will discuss how injuries affects other areas of a patient's life, such as school, work, and physical activity.

The Maple Garden Restaurant is located at 909 Isenberg (near the corner of King and Isenberg directly across from the Old Stadium Park) and there is free parking next to the Restaurant or street parking is available. The entrance to the meeting room is located at the rear of the Maple Garden building through the parking lot. Lunch is at 11:30 am and the program begins at 12 noon. The luncheon cost is $15.00 per person for members and guests which includes tax and gratuities. The food is fabulous!
