PRESS RELEASE

For Release: Sunday July 31, 2011

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 65 Years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their luncheon, Monday, August 1st., at the MGR.:

+ Dave Reardon – Feature Sports Writer – Honolulu Star-Advertiser
+ Bob Sigall – Author – “The Companies We Keep” books -

Dave Reardon - Feature Sports Writer – Honolulu Star-Advertiser – Dave returns to the HQC to talk about the latest in sports and especially UH Football. He published his predictions for all teams in the WAC Conference with Nevada finishing at the top or tying for first place. Dave chose UH for second place and the reason he suggests second place is, UH will be playing Nevada in Reno. The other rankings he predicted are Fresno, third place, Louisiana Tech, fourth, Utah State, fifth, Idaho, sixth, San Jose State, seventh place and at the very bottom is New Mexico State. Dave will review each team and give his reasons for his selections. He will be open for questions and feedback on his rankings.

Bob Sigall – Author of three “Companies We Keep” books - Author Bob and his amazing stories about Hawai'i people, places and companies has a goal of writing ten “Companies We Keep” books in the next twenty years. Currently, Bob is still working on his 4th book. He usually starts his presentation with an oral test for the audience which is always entertaining and educational. He will talk about, “The Greatest Exhibition of Golf Ever Seen in Hawai'i,” “The Waterboy who became a Quarterback,” “Which Athletic Organization Once Thought Hawai'i was too Warm for Exercise,” the Hawai'i Charity that was founded by the Philadelphia Eagles football team and who was the first Hawai'i Olympian who won a gold medal in swimming in 1974. He'll be speaking about these and other fascinating stories, as well as new stories he's developing from the upcoming, “The Companies We Keep” book 4. Bob will entertain questions from the audience at the HQC Luncheon.

The Maple Garden Restaurant is located at 909 Isenberg (near the corner of King and Isenberg directly across from the Old Stadium Park) and there is free parking next to the Restaurant or street parking is available.
