PRESS RELEASE

For Release: August 10, 2008

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 62 Years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their weekly luncheon, Monday, August 11th., at the Pagoda Hotel, International Ballroom beginning at 11:30 AM with a program starting at 12 Noon:

Scott L. Chan - Aloha Stadium - General Manager - The last time Scott visited the Honolulu Quarterback Club was June of last year. Since that time many challenges were undertaken such as the Alcohol Issue, setting a budget of $100 Million for stadium renovations, a new parking plan for the upcoming University of Hawaii Football Games, to lock permanently the football configuration and several other issues for this premier multi-purpose outdoor facility. Scott oversees, this 50,000 seat stadium with 50 full-time employees and 1,300 to 1,500 part-time employees. Since the Stadium is managed by the Stadium Authority and owned by the State of Hawaii, how does Scott run his day to day operations while being supervised by nine members of the Authority appointed by the Governor plus President of the University of Hawaii and the Superintendent of Education? Come and hear Scott at the luncheon on Monday.

Dave Reardon - Award Winning Sports Writer - Honolulu Star-Bulletin - Dave visited us last April and gave us a complete rundown on spring training for the Football Warriors. He's back to report on fall practice and he will give us his view on what we can expect to see this upcoming season. Will Funaki be the starting Quarterback since Graunke will be behind in fall practices or is there someone else that may start? Will C.J. Allen Jones be successful switching from linebacker to defensive end. Will Leon Wright-Jackson have a break-out season? What's going on with Melcolm Land? Dave will give us his opinion on all the new coaches and their abilities. Mr. Reardon is a graduate of Pearl City High School, and attended Northwestern and the University of Hawaii. Dave has been a professional sports writer for over 30 years, working for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Gainesville Florida Sun and Honolulu Advertiser. He is the "beat" writer for the University of Hawaii Football Warriors. Come Monday and hear Dave who will tell it all on Warrior Football.

Also attending the luncheon will be the Male Sportsperson of the Month for July. Michael Memea was selected by the Quarterback Club SPOM Committee as the July recipient for his outstanding performance for the 16 year old division Amateur Baseball Federation Tournament held in San Diego during the 4th of July weekend. Playing for the West Oahu Rookies, an all-star team from Oahu, Michael, a senior at Damien High School, drove-in 19 runs in 13 games, played outstanding outfield during the series and was named the, "Hero of the West Oahu Little League World Series". He will receive his award during the Honolulu Quarterback Luncheon on Monday.
