PRESS RELEASE

For Release: October 26, 2008

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 62 Years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their weekly luncheon, Monday, October 27th., at the Pagoda Hotel, International Ballroom beginning at 11:30 am with a program starting at 12 noon:

Rich Miano - Associate Head Coach - Secondary - University of Hawaii Football Warriors - Coach Miano is in his 10th year at the University of Hawai'i and has been appointed Associate Head Coach at the beginning of this season. Coach Rich assumed his new role in Greg McMackin's staff continuing to coach the secondary while attending to his additional new responsibilities. This season, the defensive secondary is one of the most feared secondary in the WAC. Led by Ryan Mouton, the busiest secondary player, is teamed up with Jameel Dowling, Desmond Thomas and Keao Monteilh. Coach Rich will give us an injury report on the secondary and will provide the strategy used in the Nevada Game. Coach Miano was a former safety who was a walk-on in 1982 at the University of Hawai'i, created his secondary from overachieving walk-ons. He assisted in the development of Nate Jackson and Jacob Espiau who themselves were impact players and earned all-Western Athletic conference honors. Also, Coach Miano was responsible for the development of former defensive backs, Abraham Elimimian, Robert Grant, Kelvin Millhouse, Kenny Patton and Leonard Peters who have all joined the NFL along with Nate Jackson. He'll talk about the development of JoPierre Davis, Calvin Roberts, Khevin Peoples, Erik Robinson and Mana Silva plus he'll spend time on the training of Richard Torres and Jeramy Bryant. Coach Rich will give us the inside story on what we can expect from Utah State and how the secondary will stop Utah this upcoming weekend for this UH road game.

Althea Belgrave - Assistant Coach - Women's Track & Field - University of Hawaii - Newly appointed Coach Althea Belgrave has the responsibility of overseeing the cross country and distance runners at the University of Hawaii. A native of Barbados, a small island in the Caribbean, Coach Althea attended the University of Idaho on a track scholarship where she lettered in both cross country and track and field. She is a 3 time national 800 and 1500 champion and earned the All-Big West Conference honors while attending Idaho and has the indoor school record for the 800. Coach Althea went on to Florida State University where she coached the middle and long distance runners as a graduate assistant. She has a degree in counseling and human services, as well as her IAAF Level I Coaching Certification. The women's cross country team placed 15th at the Santa Clara Invitational a couple of weeks ago. The cross country team will compete next at the WAC Championships in Las Cruces. Who are the stars of the Cross Country Team from UH? What is the expectation of the team's finish this year? You will find the answer at the Honolulu Quarterback Luncheon on Monday.
